 Keller's Trend collection was a key launch at the show and is available in nine options including Melamine Stone-look colours Concrete, Slate and Rust, and a woodgrain-look Ebony colour. The company also introduced a bold new colour palette that it described as "catwalk lacquer colours", comprising Powder Pink, Botanic Green, Ruby Blush, Yellow Gold and Midnight Blue

ROMAN

Liber8 Grid Pattern Panel
 Tel: 01325 311 318. www.roman-showers.com
 Roman was showcasing the Victoriana Collection of 10mm-thick enclosures featuring an etched white pattern, as well as its on-trend new Liber8 10mm Black Grid Pattern Wetroom Panel. "We were thrilled with KBB and it proved to be a very worthwhile show to exhibit at," said MD David Osborne. "It was good to see a UK show with such a high footfall and great quality of visitors," he added

DARO UK

Ta'Or Box Oak
 Tel: 0208 510 4000. www.darolife.com
 Daro UK MD James Stone said the company's message at this year's show was "all about the box" and showing the best of both worlds in metal and wood. Products on display included the Ta'Or Box Oak, pictured, configured in the same format as a Blum Space Tower, which Stone describes as "the appliance of storage science". Ta'Or Box is available in five different heights and in nominal lengths from 250mm to 750mm

VAUTH-SAGEL

Cornerstone Maxx
 Tel: 0800 171 2909. www.hafele.co.uk
 Vauth-Sagel teamed up with Häfele to bring the Cornerstone Maxx storage unit to the UK market. Available exclusively from Häfele, it transforms wasted corner space into a key storage area and has two shelves capable of holding 25kg each. It comes in two finishes – white bordered by a railing element and grey with the new Planero basket variant – and is said to offer easy-fit, tool-free mounting with height-adjustment versatility
